In the following, I provide a few video tutorials for Windows 7 Loader (i.e., Xforce ReCap and Fix Partition). The first two video tutorials from "Part 1" and "Part 2" are prepared for a specific purpose: the former one is for a beginner user while the latter one is for a more expert user. The video tutorials for Windows 7 Loader are the third part of my fix-partition-table.com. The first video tutorial is for a beginner user who is trying to create an ISO image from a Windows 7 DVD. The second video tutorial is for a beginner user who is trying to create an ISO image from a Windows 7 DVD which is for a specific purpose: create Windows 7 2d92ce491b
